BEHAVIORAL AGREEMENT

All of the participants in Children and Charity International (CAC) programs are responsible for their conduct and must be willing to abide by the rules and behavioral guidelines established for the programs in order to participate. The specific guidelines for conduct include but are not limited to:

- Students will take responsibility for their safety, carefully listening to rules and instructions. Unsafe behavior or failure to follow instructions from administrators, teachers, chaperones, or staff may result in dismissal from the program.
- Students will take responsibility for the smooth running of group activities. Behavior deemed anti-social by the program staff may result in dismissal from the program.
- Students must remain with the group at all times.
- Students who have been found to skip classes more than two times will be dismissed from the program.
- Students will not make use of vulgar or irreverent language or actions.
- Use and/or possession of firearms, knives, firecrackers, drugs, alcohol, tobacco, matches, lighters and other items deemed dangerous is strictly forbidden.
- Students will not misuse or damage CAC site or other persons property.

If a program staff member determines that a student is being disruptive, he/she may be asked to take a time out. During a "time out" the student will be apart from the group and not allowed to participate in any activities. If the student has been asked more than once to take a time out, or if he/she breaks a rule, he/she will be asked to report to the administrative office, at that time parents will be contacted. Depending on the severity of the matter at that time students may be asked to leave the program. Since disruptive behavior hurts our programs, students are not allowed to stay in the program if the student continues to be disruptive after their parent is contacted. He/she will be dismissed from the program and a parent/guardian will be required to come pick up the student; unless alternative pick up provisions have been made.

I understand that the CAC education program is an enrichment experience and that I/my child will be required to participate fully in all activities. I agree to abide by and support the policies guidelines set forth.

Admission into CAC's education program will be prohibited to individuals that do not return a signed Behavioral Agreement. Exceptions are not allowed.
